

Community Building for an Active, Creative and Engaged Alberta!

Special Area No.4 and SAMDA with ACE Communities is hosting a free one-day workshop on Community Building!

March 17, 2010

8:30 am - 4:30 pm

Workshop will be available via Video Conference from Veteran to the following communities: Altario, Cereal, Cessford, Hanna, and Oyen

Participants will have the opportunity to:

- Learn more about what it means to be an Active, Creative, and Engaged Community
- Gain an understanding of community leadership and community building
- Access a framework to use a community development approach to planning for quality of life
- Connect like-minded individuals and communities who are interested in enhancing quality of life
- Learn more about resources that are available to your community through ARPA and ACE Communities
- Provide inspiration for community leaders to take action!

Who should attend?

- Individuals or groups working in the quality of life sector such as: elected officials, business owners, youth, volunteers, and practitioners working in recreation, health, social services, justice, education, tourism, arts, heritage, culture, and others. Participants from other communities are welcome.

Pre-registration is necessary as the number of participants will be limited to 50 so please contact Wanda Greenwood at 403-577-3523 or email wanda.greenwood@gov.ab.ca and register by March 3, 2010. Lunch and snacks are provided.

Community Leader Toolkits are available to participants at $65 each. Please indicate whether you want to purchase a toolkit when you pre-register.

The workshop is offered through the generous support of Rural Alberta's Development Fund, EnCana, and Canwest through ACE Communities www.acecommunities.ca.

